When you have to wait, remember what's true.

Scenario 1:

When I am waiting on someone to choose me to join their team for a game, I can remember ...

Scenario 2:

When I am lonely and eager to make friends to spend time with, I can remember ...

Scenario 3:

When I am waiting for a parent to pay attention to my story because they are busy with something else, I can remember ...

Scenario 4:

When I have been praying and asking God for something, while I am waiting, I can remember ...

What to Do:
Print on paper, one for each kid.

Sing the entire ABC song.

Hop up and down on one foot while saying three fun facts about you.

Pat your head with one hand and rub your belly with the other for ten seconds.

Count to twenty in a cowboy voice.

Pick two people from your team to play one round of Duck, Duck, Goose with.

Line up your teammates from tallest to shortest, and then ask them to sit back down.

Say the days of the week backwards.

Do ten jumping jacks while sharing your three favorite movies with the group.

Pretend like you're a plane flying around your team members as you share your favorite TV show.

Share your favorite cookout food while running in place for five seconds.

Wait for the LORD.

strong and don't lose

hope.

Wait for the LORD.
