Let's Talk About . . . Consent

This week's Let's Talk About standalone message is all about consent. It's a conversation designed to help students show mutual honor and respect to one another. As you talk to your child this week, focus on those two words: honor and respect. It's important for middle schoolers to recognize that the call to respect the boundaries, bodies, and desires of others isn't a cultural thing; it's a command from God to honor others as we hope to be honored ourselves.

MEMORY VERSE

"Be devoted to one another in love. Honor one another above yourselves."
Romans 12:10, NIV

Week One

John 15:12-23; Romans 12:10
Choose to honor yourself and others.

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your kid starts their day, tell them about a trait they have that you admire and aspire to see in yourself, too.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, have everyone answer this question: "What does it mean to honor someone?" Then, give specific examples of how you each have shown someone honor.

Drive Time

While on the go this week, ask your kid: "How do you feel about dating or relationships?"

Bed Time

Pray that your middle schooler will be wise in their relationships. Ask God to help them not only have good boundaries, but to give them the strength to communicate those boundaries with confidence.
